Could their dream of owning a restaurant be a recipe for disaster?

The Restaurant Adventures of Caroline & Dave

30 Minute Episodes in HD

Caroline and Dave are in love with not only each other but with the fine art of vegetarian cuisine - and now they're setting out to start their own restaurant. Zen Kitchen will offer the freshest organic ingredients lovingly prepared by Caroline, who studied at the best vegan cooking school in North America.

The recipe seems perfect. So why is there smoke rising from the ovens and screaming coming out of the kitchen?

Caroline and Dave have very little experience in the restaurant business, but the one thing they do know is their life savings are completely at risk! From the beginning, their adventure rapidly switches from a romantic dream to a rollercoaster ride of worries and woes.

Once they open the doors, Caroline's Zen philosophy takes a beating; faulty equipment, untrained staff, frustrated servers and a major conflict over how the kitchen should be run are all part of the unexpected drama.

They love each other, but will building a dream restaurant push their relationship beyond the limits? Make a reservation and find out what happens in The Restaurant Adventures of Caroline and Dave.
