

ZenKitchen Bulletin
March 2011

Dear Friends,

Winter isn't over, but the longer days are certainly appreciated. We have some exciting news at ZenKitchen, with upcoming events and special menus. Here's a quick update! Regards, Dave and Caroline

Monday, March 7 Night Concert

Continuing our occasional concert series, we're hosting three hot young singer-songwriters this coming Monday, March 7 at 8pm. Kirby (front man for Leominster) and Max Wray, with Ottawa's own Jon Laurie-Beaumont, will join us for an intimate, personal concert $6 cover. Our late night menu will be available.

New Tasting Menu

Our March tasting menu draws on our recent travels through central Mexico, offering four courses of innovative Latin cuisine. And it's available with Dave's pairings of wine or tequila.

The Restaurant Adventures of Caroline and Dave - and Oprah?

If you didn't catch the 13 episode TV series that followed our exploits opening ZenKitchen, we're proud to announce that the whole series is being shown again on Oprah Winfrey's network, OWN, Fridays at 3pm.

ZenKitchen Take-out

We've expanded our take-out service. You can place an order over the phone at lunch or dinner. View our menus at <http://www.zenkitchen.ca>

Mid-week Special

We're offering a special this week: a 3 course meal (your choice of appetizer, main or dessert) for only $30, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday March 9-11. Reservations are recommended, as always. Some restrictions (but not many!) apply.

Cooking Classes with Caroline

The March 30 cooking class at the Urban Element is sold out. There is still space in the cooking demonstration classes at the LCBO Rideau on April 6, March 14 and June 8. For the description of the classes please visit www.zenkitchen.ca. To register, visit the Customer Service Desk at the LCBO Rideau or call them at 613-789-5226.

Photography Exhibition

Our current art exhibition is by students of the School of Photographic Arts Ottawa. These amazing works are available for sale, framed. Drop by and check them out!
